Please keep the family in your prayers.

Bulletin Reflection:

St. Paul tells us in his letter to the Romans that to love our neighbor is to obey God. When we love our neighbor, we recognize the dignity in that person and realize that they are also created and loved by God.

Living Stewardship ~ Pillar of Hospitality

In today’s readings, we are called to love and forgive our brothers and sisters. Perhaps this week you could reach out to a lonely family member or friend and just chat with them. If you are holding a grudge against someone, let this be the week you let it go.

PRAYER CORNER

Please remember the sick & suffering in your prayers, so they may receive healing & comfort:

Jesus said, “Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”

MATTHEW 18:20

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER 6 2020

The truth is, love is sometimes wonderfully charged with light and life, but it also often requires us to confront wrongdoing and injustice, to be patient and forgiving, and to work for peace and reconciliation. As followers of Jesus Christ, we are called to reflect the love of God which desires the best for every person and for all of humanity. Jesus was so committed to this mission of God’s love that he gave himself as an offering of pure sacrifice. This is not easy love. It is compelling love, the sort of love that transforms and draws us toward the light and life that in our hearts we know we seek, and which we are called to share.

IF TODAY YOU HEAR HIS VOICE

Where does this leave us when we experience conflict with others? As in all times and seasons, the best place to begin is in prayer. Listen for the voice of God in personal prayer, at Mass, in sacred scripture and other devotional reading, with trusted faithful and faith-filled friends. Listen with the compassion of the Lord in mind. And when you hear God’s voice, pay attention! This sounds self-evident, yet how many of us hear God’s voice but ask that we not be called to the challenge and discomfort of the situation, desiring instead to hope that things will simply get better? Perhaps they will, but perhaps you are called to bring the light and life of Christ to the situation, in love, for love, and through love, just as Jesus did. “If today you hear [God’s] voice, harden not your hearts,” says today’s psalm. We often know the depth of love to which we are called. Today’s readings invite us to listen and to act, to love our neighbor as ourselves, to desire the best for every person as God desires, and to be assured that God is in our midst.

Today’s Readings: Ez 33:7–9; Ps 95:1–2, 6–7, 8–9; Rom 13:8–10; Mt 18:15–20

Adult Spiritual Formation

Each day, we must build up our stock of joy, in the form which constitutes the highest and the purest joy, in the form of wonder. Wonder is what links us with God, makes the living waters spring from within us. It is wonder that opens up new horizons to us each day. It is wonder that immediately disengages us from ourselves and attaches us to the Other in whom our admiration rests. ---Father Zundel

ST. HUGH ‘S ROSARY ALTAR SOCIETY

Lord God, help me to follow you - when I face challenges and enjoy good times. May I know the assurance that You are always with me.

Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted . . .
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy . . .
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Matthew 5:4, 6, 7

Respect Life

DISCRIMINATION
Abortion is discrimination on the basis of age. Abortion is capital punishment without due process. The unborn child is condemned to death with state approval, but without benefit of trial, judge or jury. How long will we, a nation professing equal justice under the law, continue to tolerate this mockery of justice?

Siente el llamado para ser diácono, servir a Dios y a la Iglesia?

El diácono Art Candido Director de la Oficina de Formación para el Diaconado lo invita a conocer más sobre el llamado a servir a Dios y a la Iglesia. Su ministerio es formar hombres católicos para el diaconado y para ello lo anima a asistir a una charla en el Seminario de la Inmaculada Concepción en septiembre 15, 7 pm.; septiembre 20, 4pm o septiembre 24, 7 pm. Lugar: Seminario de la Inmaculada Concepción, 440 West Neck Road, Huntington, NY 11743. (631)423-0483. Ext 179. Email: diaconateformation@drvc.org

La verdad es que el amor está maravillosamente cargado con luz y vida, pero también requiere que enfrentemos las malas acciones y la injusticia, que seamos pacientes y perdono y que nos reconciliemos y promovamos la paz. Como seguidores de Jesucristo, se nos llama a mostrar el amor de Dios que desea lo mejor para cada persona y para toda la humanidad. Jesús estaba tan comprometido con esta misión de amor de Dios que se entregó a sí mismo como una ofrenda de sacrificio puro. Este no es un amor fácil. Es un amor convincente, el tipo de amor que nos transforma y nos atrae hacia la luz y la vida que en nuestros corazones sabemos que buscamos, y que estamos llamados a compartir.

SI HOY ESCUCHAS SU VOZ

¿Dónde nos pone esto cuando experimentamos un conflicto con otros? Como en todas las momentos y ciclos, el mejor lugar para empezar es en la oración. Escuchar la voz de Dios en la oración personal, en la Misa, en las Sagradas Escrituras y otras lecturas devocionales, con amigos fieles de confianza y llenos de fe. Escuchen con la compasión del Señor en mente. Y cuando escuchan la voz de Dios, ¡pongan atención! Esto se escucha evidente, pero ¿cuántos de nosotros escuchamos la voz de Dios, pero pedimos que no se nos llame al desafío y la incomodidad de la situación, deseando en cambio esperar que las cosas simplemente mejoren? Tal vez lo hagan, pero tal vez están llamados a llevar la luz y la vida de Cristo a esa circunstancia, en el amor y a través del amor, como Jesús lo hizo. El salmo de hoy dice: “Si hoy escuchan la voz (de Dios), no endurezcan su corazón”. A menudo conocemos la profundidad del amor al que estamos llamados. Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a escuchar, a comportarnos, a amar a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos, a desear lo mejor para cada persona de acuerdo a la voluntad de Dios y a estar seguro de que Dios está en medio de nosotros.

Lecturas de hoy: Ez 33:7-9; Sal 95 (94):1–2, 6–7, 8–9; Rom 13:8–10; Mt 18:15–20
