We also remember those who have died in our Parish Community.
Please keep the family in your prayers.

Bulletin Reflection:
We are all sinners who have offended God and our neighbors. However, God forgives us our trespasses when we ask for His mercy and forgiveness. The Gospel message today is about a man who, having owed a large debt, was forgiven by his master but did not forgive his fellow man.

Living Stewardship ~ Pillar of Formation
We have all been wronged and hurt by someone else. However, as Catholics, we should learn to forgive. This week pray for someone who has hurt you and forgive them.

PRAYER CORNER
Please remember the sick & suffering in your prayers, so they may receive healing & comfort:
GOD’S MERCY

In many of our relationships with others—friends, spouse, neighbors, or co-workers—often the most difficult times come when someone damages the relationship. There are moments when only apology and forgiveness can lead to healing. In this week’s readings, we are reminded how our connection with God is woven into our relationships with others. God is the source of all mercy, and all of us stand in need of forgiveness. As we are able to accept the mercy of God deep within our hearts, we become empowered to show mercy to others. When things go badly in our relationships, we can remember that God is present at the center of these difficult moments. God is offering grace to ask forgiveness, to receive apology, and to accept the forgiveness extended to us.

FORGIVEN AND FORGIVING

In today’s Gospel, Jesus calls his followers to forgive “seventy-seven” times. In other words, stop keeping track when forgiving others. But when we are hurt, this is really hard to do. In fact, to protect ourselves from further hurt, we might be inclined to do the opposite, and lash out. Jesus teaches the futility of this approach.

Jesus’ parable of the unforgiving servant reminds us that in the course of our lives we have harmed others, and so distanced ourselves from God. We have also been harmed by others. Like the servant, we sometimes owe a debt, and sometimes others owe a debt to us. Here we are invited to stop the cycle of pain with the grace of mercy. We are called to imitate our God, who forgives wholeheartedly.

PROTECTING THE VULNERABLE

It is also tempting to view this teaching on forgiveness in isolation. This would suggest that the burden is placed entirely upon the offended person to go on forgiving, without mentioning any accountability on the part of the offending person. This interpretation can often be dangerous. The call to forgive should never be used as a cover for bullying or for oppressive relationships of any kind.

It is helpful to consider all of chapter 18 in Matthew’s Gospel, which teaches about forgiveness and reconciliation, and the exercise of authority in the Christian community. Last week’s Gospel (Matthew 18:15–18) provides guidance on how Christians can call to accountability someone who has hurt others, to protect the weak, and to seek reconciliation as a community. The parable we hear today reminds us that, like the master who protected the second servant from the cruelty of the unforgiving servant, God seeks to guard the most vulnerable from harm.

The Gospel of Matthew presented an alternative to the violence-based order of his day. Matthew described Jesus’ vision of community, in which power is used at the service of all and the vulnerable are protected and cherished.

Project HOPE
We will again be getting a very large delivery of produce (more than 40,000 lbs.) this Monday, September 14th, to St. Hugh on 1st Avenue. It will be coming in unsorted pallets and we will need volunteers to sort and bag. This is the only delivery we are getting this month.

If you are able to assist, it is important that you reach out to Dan and let him know your availability. Please call him at (516-456-0866) or email him at youthmindiv@gmail.com

We are in need of YOUNG STRONG individuals who can lift 50 LB bags of potatoes and carrots from the pallets. If these STRONG individuals could arrive at 9:00 am, that would be greatly appreciated. We are emphasizing STRONG so that we can get bags moved - please, if you can give a couple of hours on Monday, we really need your help.

We need everyone to be there from 9:30 to 11:30. We truly appreciate those who have been able to assist but we need more people, especially those who can lift and move boxes

Everyone is to wear masks and bring gloves. We will have extras if needed.
