ST. HUGH'S ROSARY ALTAR SOCIETY

How is Mary connected to the Holy Spirit?

She has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit” (Mt. 1:18, 20). It is the Holy Spirit who consecrates and makes fruitful Mary's acceptance of the Father's will for her. She is full of the grace of the Holy Spirit, who guides her in all of the decisive moments of her life.

What was Mary's role at Pentecost?

Mary prays with the first community. She, the teacher of prayer, always docile to the soft voice of the Paraclete, teaches the disciples to be confident in awaiting the Gift that comes from on high: the Spirit promised by Jesus as a fruit of His death and resurrection.

What happened to Mary after Pentecost?

According to later tradition, Mary, having spent her life after Pentecost supporting and serving the nascent Church, was living in the house of the Apostle John, in Jerusalem, when the Archangel Gabriel revealed to her that her death would occur three days later.

Let us Pray: Dear God, Thank you that you sent the Holy Spirit at Pentecost in wind and flame to lead us into love, joy, peace and truth. Fill each one of us we pray by the power of the Holy Spirit with all those things so we can make a difference in the world wherever we may be.

Amen.

Please join us on Wednesday in the Chapel at 7pm to pray for each other and recite the Rosary. All are welcome.

If you would like to join the Rosary Altar Society, please call Carol @ 631-421-5331.

RESPECT LIFE

GOD'S MASTERPIECE

“Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect.” Pope Francis.

May 24, 2026 Pentecost Sunday

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

John 20:19-23

“He breathed on them and said to them, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.’” (John 20:22–23)

For those of us who go to confession regularly, there is often a familiar frustration: “Why do I keep confessing the same sins?” It can feel like a loop, cleansed but unchanged.

Pentecost reveals a hopeful perspective. When the Risen Jesus breathes on his ashamed and fearful disciples and gives them the Holy Spirit, he echoes Genesis, when God breathes life into Adam. This is not just primarily the removal of guilt, but new creation.

In confession, we receive more than forgiveness. We receive a fresh outpouring, the breath of the Spirit, and a renewed mission. Jesus does not say to us, “You’re forgiven, now go back to your old life.” He says, so to speak, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” (John 20:21)

That is why penance is not just saying a few prayers. It is reorientation. It is the Spirit summoning us to live differently: with mercy and healing.

Just as Adam was sent into the world, and the Apostles were sent out after Pentecost, so too we are sent from the confessional — not just clean, but consecrated.

Pentecost Challenge: After your next confession, ask the Holy Spirit for one way you can participate in Christ’s healing will for you. Then take one small, concrete step, and do not look back.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

(Gospel Meditations)

Juan 20:19-23

El Espíritu Santo llena el vacío que la Ascensión del Señor había dejado en los discípulos. Ahora da comienzo la Iglesia naciente, con la fuerza del Espíritu Santo en sus corazones. Pentecostés es la realidad presente del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo en la Iglesia. Es el Espíritu quien nos sostiene, impulsa y fortalece. Este día, la Iglesia entera se anima con cantos y alabanzas por este gran acontecimiento: “Dicho esto, sopló sobre ellos y les dijo: ‘Reciban el Espíritu Santo. A quienes descarguen de sus pecados, serán liberados, y a quienes se los retengan, les serán retenidos’” (Juan 20:22-23).

La Iglesia es una, como lo recitamos cada domingo en el Credo, y es obra del Espíritu Santo. Como dice san Pablo: “Hay diferentes dones espirituales, pero el Espíritu es el mismo. Hay diversos ministerios, pero el Señor es el mismo. Hay diversidad de obras, pero es el mismo Dios quien obra todo en todos. La manifestación del Espíritu que a cada uno se le da es para provecho común” (1 Corintios 12:4-7). Esto nos recuerda que nadie es dueño de los ministerios en la Iglesia, ni puede aprovecharse del poder que se le otorga en el servicio. Solo somos servidores al servicio del Señor. El Espíritu Santo está para construir las comunidades, los grupos parroquiales, los movimientos y las organizaciones. Y la mejor manera de construir es obedeciendo al Señor, que nos dice en su Evangelio: “¡La paz esté con ustedes!” (Juan 20:21). La paz une, anima y fortalece.
