When the winds start to beat down on us and we feel as though we could drown in our stresses, sorrows and worries, do we trust in Jesus? Do we find it difficult to trust in Him when times are tough?

FREE TO CHOOSE
Our readings today drench us in God’s kindness. The Old Testament reading, Paul’s letter, and the Gospel demonstrate God’s creative and personalized outreach to us. In each case, we see a different reaction to God’s gestures. Elijah drinks in his consolation, recognizing God in gentle silence and going out to meet God. The Israelites, according to Saint Paul, though encountering God in a variety of ways through the centuries, ultimately reject the Messiah whom God sends to them. Peter, however, recognizes the Lord coming to him on the water, but demands proof and grows frightened. At all times and in all places, God longs for us to believe and goes to great lengths to strengthen our faith. Ultimately, God never compels belief, but leaves it up to us to choose. Today’s scriptures challenge us to consider our own response to God’s constant work in our lives.

EMBRACING DIVERSITY
Today’s readings console and challenge us, reminding us just how hard God works for us so we might have faith. God’s labors are infinitely diverse, too, always tailored to fit our particular situations, personalities, and needs. In Elijah’s case, he is hiding in a cave on the very same mountain where Moses once encountered God in the burning bush. Hunted by the pagan Queen Jezebel, Elijah is running for his life. While Moses experienced God in fire on this mountain, Elijah requires a gentler touch. God comes to him not in awesome displays of power, but in a “tiny whispering sound.” God provides exactly the tranquility Elijah needs before sending him off on a new mission.

God’s creative care for us does not always lead to faith, however. In a strikingly tender passage, Saint Paul shares his heartbreak that God’s chosen people could reject Jesus, even after all God has done to prepare them for the Messiah. God has accompanied the chosen people through adoption, miracles, covenants, commandments, prophets, and kings. Despite ages of dedicated and inventive caregiving, God’s people do not unite in worship of the true Messiah. The proper response to this lack of faith is sorrow, and Saint Paul pours out the “constant anguish” in his heart.

In yet another astonishingly creative gesture, God visits people in need of faith by defying the laws of nature. Matthew’s Gospel describes Jesus actually walking on water to comfort his disciples during a storm at sea. After their terror subsides and the winds grow calm, faith floods the disciples’ hearts. They worship Jesus, proclaiming, “Truly, you are the Son of God.”

Although the Religious Education office has been closed except for “by appointment only” visits, we've been working for the past several weeks on registration for our fall classes and preparing for First Holy Communion and Confirmation celebrations. The recent pandemic has made it more clear than ever that we need to have a way to communicate with the families in our program electronically. For this reason, we've been collecting and updating email addresses, which seems to be the best way to communicate. An attempt was made to contact all our families, but unfortunately some phone numbers are not working. It is crucial to keep the office informed of any address or phone changes so we can continuously update our records.

For all inquiries regarding fall registration or the celebration of Sacraments, please email us at religioused@stthugh.org You may also visit the parish website at www.stthugh.org Under Faith Formation on the top menu bar, click on Children’s Faith Formation for updates and information. The office will be closed for the summer from July 15 to September 9 but we will continue to monitor and respond to any emails we receive, so please don't hesitate to email us with any questions or concerns.

Will continue to keep you all in prayer and hope you have a wonderful, safe and enjoyable summer!
On the mountain the three of them see the glory of God’s Kingdom shining out of Jesus. On the mountain they are overshadowed by God’s holy cloud... On the mountain they learn that Jesus himself is the living Torah, the complete Word of God. On the mountain they see the 'power' of the Kingdom that is coming in Christ. ----Pope Benedict

Respect life-
PRAYER TO THE VIRGIN MARY

O Mary, Mother of Jesus and Mother of us all, we turn to you today as the one who said “Yes” to Life.
“You will conceive and bear a Son,” the angel told you.
Despite the surprise and the uncertainty about how this could be,
you said yes. “Be it done unto me according to your word.”
Mary, we pray today for all mothers who are afraid to be mothers.
We pray for those who feel threatened and overwhelmed by their pregnancy. Intercede for them, that God may give them the grace to say yes and the courage to go on.
May they have the grace to reject the false solution of abortion.
May they say with you, “Be it done unto me according to your word.”
May they experience the help of Christian people, and know the peace that comes from doing God’s will. Amen

LIBRE PARA ELEGIR

Nuestras lecturas de hoy nos empaña en la bondad de Dios. La lectura del Antiguo Testamento, la carta de Pablo y el Evangelio nos demuestran el alcance creativo y personalizado de Dios a nosotros. En cada caso, vemos una reacción diferente a los gestos de Dios. Elías bebe en su consuelo, reconociendo a Dios en silencio suave y saliendo a encontrarse con Dios. Los israelitas, según san Pablo, aunque se encuentran con Dios de diversas maneras a través de los siglos, en última instancia rechazan al Mesías que Dios les envía. Pedro cree que reconoce que el Señor viene a él sobre el agua, pero exige pruebas y se asusta. En todo momento y en todos los lugares, Dios anhela que creemos y hice todo lo posible para fortalecer nuestra fe. En última instancia, Dios nunca obliga a la creencia, sino que nos deja libres para elegir. Las Escrituras de hoy nos desafían a considerar nuestra propia respuesta a la obra constante de Dios en nuestra vida.

ACCEPTANDO LA DIVERSIDAD

Las lecturas de hoy nos consuelan y nos desafían, solo recordándonos lo duro que Dios trabaja para nosotros para que podamos tener fe. Los trabajos de Dios son diversamente infinitos también, siempre para medirlos y acomodarlos a nuestras situaciones particulares, personalidades y necesidades. En el caso de Elías, él está escondido en una cueva en la misma montaña donde Moisés una vez encontró a Dios en la zarza ardiente. Siendo perseguido por la reina pagana Jezabel, Elías escapa por su vida. Mientras Moisés experimenta a Dios en el fuego en esta montaña, Elías requiere un toque más gentil. Dios viene a él no en una muesta extraordinaria de poder sino en el “sonido de la brisa suave”. Dios provee exactamente la tranquilidad que Elías necesita antes de enviarlo a una nueva misión.

Sin embargo, el cuidado creador de Dios no siempre nos guía a la fe. En un pasaje sorprendente, san Pablo nos comparte su angustia que el pueblo elegido por Dios puede rechazar a Jesús, aún después de todo lo que Dios ha hecho para prepararlo para el Mesías. Dios ha acompañado al pueblo elegido por medio de la adopción, los milagros, la alianza, los mandamientos, los profetas y reyes. Pese a los años de dedicado e ingenioso cuidado, el pueblo de Dios no se une al culto del verdadero Mesías. La propia respuesta a esta falta de fe es el dolor, y san Pablo derrama la “constante angustia” de su corazón.

En otro asombroso gesto, Dios visita a su pueblo de esa necesidad las leyes de la naturaleza. El Evangelio de Mateo describe a Jesús caminando sobre el agua para consolar a sus discípulos durante una tormenta en el mar. Después de que pasa su espanto y el viento se calma, la fe inunda a los corazones de los discípulos. Ellos alaban a Jesús, proclamando “verdaderamente, tú eres el Hijo de Dios”.

HASTA EL LÍMITE

Algunas veces las propuestas creativas de Dios son demasiado para sobrellevar. En un atrevido esfuerzo, Pedro desafía a Jesús a compartirle su poder con él. Jesús obliga a Pedro a caminar sobre el agua. Pedro disfruta este milagro hasta que sus limitaciones naturales estropean su fe. Solo imagina que barreras podemos romper si solamente creyéramos.

Aunque la oficina de Educación Religiosa ha cerrado excepto "solo con cita previa", hemos estado trabajando durante las últimas semanas en el registro para nuestras clases de otoño y en la preparación para las celebraciones de la Primera Comunión y la Confirmación. La reciente pandemia ha dejado más claro que nunca que necesitamos tener una manera de comunicarnos electrónicamente con las familias de nuestro programa. Por este motivo, hemos estado recopilando y actualizando nuestras direcciones de correo electrónico, que parece ser la mejor manera de comunicarnos. Se intentó contactar a todas nuestras familias, pero desafortunadamente algunos números de teléfono no funcionan. Es crucial mantener informada a la oficina de cualquier cambio de dirección o teléfono para que podamos actualizar continuamente nuestros registros.

Para todas las consultas relacionadas con el registro de otoño o la celebración de los Sacramentos, envíenos un correo electrónico a religioused@sthugh.org.
También puede visitar el sitio web de la parroquia en www.sthugh.org, Bajo Formación de fe en la barra de menú superior, haga clic en Formación de fe para niños para obtener actualizaciones e información. La oficina permanecerá cerrada durante el verano del 15 de julio al 9 de septiembre, pero continuaremos monitoreando y respondiendo cualquier correo electrónico que recibamos, así que no dude en enviarnos un correo electrónico con cualquier pregunta o inquietud.

¡Seguiremos manteniéndolos a todos en oración y esperamos que tengan un verano maravilloso, seguro y agradable!
